NORTH AMERICA

10 REASONS TO DIVE IN CURAÇAO

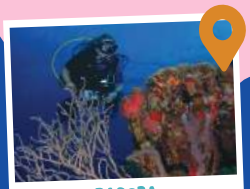
ALICE IN WONDERLAND

AIRPLANE WRECK

CARIBBEAN

BOCA SAMI

TUGBOAT



BASORA

TARPON BRIDGE

1. A TOP DIVING DESTINATION

With its enchanting underwater scenery, one of the healthiest marine animal cultures in the Caribbean and superior amenities, Curaçao invites you to dive deep into a sea of wonder.

2. A SHORE DIVER'S DREAM

Grab your diving goggles, take an admiring glance at the pristine white sand and make a beeline for the ocean. Calm waters and excellent visibility create perfect conditions for shore diving.

3. MORE TO EXPLORE

Looking for plenty of variety? No problem! Enjoy over 70 spectacular dive spots with great visibility. There is always another underwater adventure awaiting you in Curaçao.

4. HIGHEST QUALITY STANDARDS

The Dive Task Force, which forms part of the Curaçao Hospitality and Tourism Association (CHATA), is comprised of dive schools that are approved by the Curaçao Tourist Board and monitored for their quality, safety and sustainability.

5. A DUSHI WELCOME

Curaçao offers a wide range of accommodations to choose from, including PADI-certified diving hotels and resorts. No matter where you stay, you'll be given a "dushi" (sweet) welcome.

6. PUTTING CONSERVATION FIRST

The island's dedication to sustainable and responsible tourism ensures that you and future generations can enjoy its underwater splendour now and for years to come.

7. AN INCREDIBLE WRECK DIVE

The Superior Producer, a coastal cargo ship, sunk in 1977 en route from Isla Margarita and settled some 196 feet from the coast of Curaçao, where it now lies veiled in corals and sponges.

8. EASY TO TRAVEL TO

Curaçao is located in the Dutch Caribbean outside the hurricane belt. Average water temperatures of 82°F and frequent direct flights make it a year-round diver's heaven.

9. SO MUCH TO SEE

Curaçao's waters boast countless species of marine life, including spiny lobsters, parrotfish, angelfish, turtles, scorpionfish and moray eels. Embark on a magical night dive to admire anemones, octopuses and spider crabs.

10. SO MUCH TO DO

It's impossible to get enough of the underwater world. Just remember to venture ashore to immerse yourself in the island's unique blend of Caribbean and European culture. Land or sea, there is no better place than Curaçao.

LEARN MORE AT CURACAO.COM